Big Foot Sportster "48"

2014 XL 1200 X „Forty Eight“ Cross-over Sportster „Big Foot“ conversion

With the "Forty Eight", Harley-Davidson created one of the most popular Sportsters with stock fat wheels. Two 16 inch rims serve as a reminder of the Bobbers built just after the second world war – a treat for customizers! Rick's Harley-Davidson went one step further and created on the basis of the model their own motorcycle style: ""survival bikes" running on fat, knobby tires, which look like a two-wheel version of a tractor, which resemble "Rokon" motorcycles with 4-wheel drive. The "Big Foot" bikes were a big success and are still in demand in various paint jobs and other variations.
