Silver Nugget

Even if the model shown is in silver, the Harley-Davidson Sportster models are real gold nuggets. The old Evo motor has been manufactured with almost no changes for decades, and the forthcoming emission limits can no longer be adhered to, so it will be sent into well deserved retirement from 2021. If, as of October 2020, you can still get hold of one, you can consider yourself lucky! In many places the XL models are already sold out. Rick's was able to secure a few examples and gave this Harley-Davidson Sportster XL1200 Iron a completely new look with relatively little effort.
