Lucky Swinger

About four weeks before European Bike Week, Rick's Motorcycles received a call from Kellermann to ask if they could provide them with a suitable exhibition bike, something special, a real eye-catcher. If you call Rick's about that sort of thing, then you can normally expect some Softail conversion with XXL tires. But as it happens there was nothing like that available at the time, because as soon as such a bike is ready, it gets sold. And anyway, in Baden-Baden they had fancied for a long time to do something special of their own, which they have achieved with this Sportster. They expected all sorts of things, but an XL? Well, this one is very special indeed.
